

Continental Concession Supplies Inc. Appoints New Director of Special Markets

National Leading Concession Company Strengthens Resources

New Hyde Park, NY – Continental Concession Supplies Inc (www.ccsicandy.com) is proud to announce that Adam Vick has joined our growing Company to further develop the expanding portfolio of Regional and National Special Market accounts. Adam Vick comes to CCSI with a strong background of the special market sector, and with a great deal of experience within the division & the candy and snacks overall industry experience, having spent several years working at The Hershey Company and Liberty Distribution.

Adam possesses the expertise, drive, and the dedication to continue to expand this division within CCSI, while creating new legacy accounts within the industry. Adam will further expand the CCSI specialty markets sales team, and will, along with that team, be instrumental to CCSI's overall continued success.

Adam joins CCSI as our Special Markets Division Director and will lead a team dedicated to enhancing CCSI's continued successes providing business services to many of the top Companies within this arena. Adam comments "I am excited about the opportunity to join CCSI and work with an organization with such a strong track record of driving business and servicing the needs of their customers. Special Markets are a unique class of trade in this industry and CCSI is positioned perfectly to service the unique needs of these customers. I couldn't be any happier to join their team as they continue to solidify themselves as an industry leading distribution channel".